County Clerk Hanlon Advises Residents that Tuesday, Oct. 17 is Voter Registration Deadline for the 2023 General Election

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is reminding residents that one week from today, Tuesday, Oct. 17 is the voter registration deadline for those wishing to vote in the Nov. 7 General Election. Registration must be completed online via the State's voter registration portal or by completing the State voter registration form and submitting it to the Monmouth County Superintendent/Registrar of Elections or municipal clerks by Oct. 17.

"The right to vote is the cornerstone of our democracy, and I encourage all eligible residents to make their voices heard by participating in the upcoming General Election," said Clerk Hanlon.

Residents may register online via the State of New Jersey's voter registration portal or in person at the Monmouth County Superintendent/Registrar of Elections Office located at 300 Halls Mills Road in Freehold. Additionally, residents may complete and mail the New Jersey Voter Registration form to the County Superintendent/Registrar of Elections Office.

Voters can find the link to the State voter registration portal or can download the New Jersey voter registration application by visiting the County Clerk's elections website at MonmouthCountyVotes.com. Voters can also download the County Clerk's free "Monmouth County Votes" mobile app from the Apple App Store or Google Play Stores to obtain this information.

In order to register to vote, residents must be at least 17 years of age and a U.S. citizen. Only individuals who are at least 18 years of age on Election Day will be permitted to vote in the election.

A driver's license or the last four digits of the applicant's Social Security number must be entered on the New Jersey voter registration form and online portal.

For questions, please contact the Monmouth County Superintendent/Registrar of Elections at 732-431-7780. For more information, visit the County Clerk's elections website at MonmouthCountyVotes.com.
